Proof of Identity Requirements

One form of identification required by state law - 3 ways to satisfy

State law requires that all voters provide proof of identity before voting. A voter may satisfy the requirement to provide proof of identity in any one of the following ways:

1. Current photo identification issued by the State of Oklahoma, the United States government, or a federally recognized tribal government.
2. Voter ID card issued by the County Election Board.
3. Sign a provisional affidavit. The voter may vote a provisional ballot.
